President's Message

From Carla Slabaugh

IMPRESSIVE is the one word I can come up with for our club's representation at the Vizsla Club of America's National Specialty Events in Minnetonka, MN this year. Members from the Puget Sound Vizsla Club competed in ALL venues that were offered and brought home some really nice placements/new titles in EACH EVENT. I am hoping that everyone that did make the big migration there and earned ribbons/titles did remember to send in their brags. There were so many ribbons earned by so many it would have made one impressive photo if we had been able to get everyone together. Perhaps next year when Nationals will be much closer in San Jose, CA we can have EVEN MORE exhibitors show our National club just how active and wonderful our Northwest Vizslas are. It is never too early to start planning!

In March we also got to see lots of wonderful bird work by our Vizslas (and other breeds) during the club's Hunt Test. Many new titles were earned over that weekend and the event was once again a big success. Many thanks go out to Bruce, Steve, and the whole committee for making this come together so smoothly. Also a big thank you to the Walds for running an awesome lunch & hospitality! I heard lots of positive feedback on the whole double weekend. I know many are already looking forward to next year!

Our club's big specialty/obedience/rally/junior show in Enumclaw, WA is coming up in August so please "Save the Date". If you have not already turned in your reserved camping/parking to the Walds for this event, it is due the 8th of June (at our next meeting). The specialty show will be held August 16th.

If you have not been to recent meetings you may have also missed that our club will be putting on a second specialty show which will be conducted concurrently with the Whidbey Island Kennel Club All Breed shows in Monroe, WA. The specialty show date will be November 16th so please "Save the Date" for that event as well.

Thank you for remaining active in this club and I hope to see you at some of these great upcoming events!

~ Carla

PSVC Hunt Test - March 16-17th, 2013

Once again the PSVC put on an amazing hunt test. Judges and participants alike commented on how smoothly we made this event run. All of them would be happy to judge for us again!

This year was an experiment in many ways. We tested new grounds in Kennewick, and we tried our first 'double-double' hunt test in combination with the 3 Rivers Bird Dog Club. We also were one of the first clubs in the area to experiment with judges on ATVs. All in all the hunt test was a success. We had strong entry numbers, allowing us to make over $1,000 in profit. We also had tremendous support from club members and from the folks at 3 Rivers- all were instrumental in making the event a success. Weather was a bit challenging- while we didn't have rain, we did have very strong winds that made it difficult for dogs and participants. The wind was also hard on hospitality and made cooking a real challenge. But we all had a great time!

Special thanks are due to:

Bruce Dickey- Secretary extraordinaire and our liaison with 3 Rivers. He made it all seem easy!

Carla Slabaugh - Assistant Secretary, she kept the score cards and ribbons flowing!

Tara Rossnagle, Gale Shea and Gail Fleming - Outstanding line marshals who ensured the event stayed on track and made sure participants were ready to go when needed.

Eddie Rossnagle, Diane Nelson, and Tom Shea - the best bird planters around! Made sure birds stayed on course, planted and replaced!

And OF COURSE

Mike and Sheila Wald who worked tirelessly to ensure there was warm food, hot coffee and all food that we depend on! Mike worked thru a broken up grill in a wind storm to cook some great burgers and dogs both days!

The hunt test is a great club event. It requires a lot of participation to put it on, but it also a big fund raiser for the club. As such I would encourage others to help out and volunteer at future hunt tests. It's a great way to see these pointing dogs do what they have been bred to do. There is really nothing more amazing than watching how the top dogs work a field and find birds on the slightest whiff! Hope that we can encourage more people to help next year. This year we had 3 new helpers who I hope all had a great time!

AKC/Eukanuba National Championship Week Is Growing To Celebrate Dogdom's Final Five!

New York, NY (April 2, 2013) — Move over college basketball, the dog sport world now has the “Final Five.” This December, the competitive year will culminate with five events in Orlando, Florida. The week’s highlights are three all-breed dog shows, a day of independent specialties and special attractions, and the AKC/Eukanuba National Championship. These premiere events will be held on December 10-15, 2013 at the Orange County Convention Center in Orlando, Florida.

“We’re pleased to add a full day of specialties and special attractions the Friday before the AKC/Eukanuba National Championship, with many new features during the week, like “My Dog Can Do That!”, two AKC Advanced Judges Institutes, Breeders Seminars and the AKC Owner-Handler Series end-of-year competition,” said Michael Canalizo, AKC Event Manager. “It’s truly a celebration of all things dog.”

“We are excited to expand the 13th annual AKC/Eukanuba National Championship to a week-long celebration in the canine world. The week will feature unique breeds, amazing athletes, and the special bond dogs have with their people,” said Jason Taylor-External Relations Manager, P&G Pet Care. “Along with our partners at the AKC, we are aiming to create the most thrilling canine event in the world.”

“The Orlando cluster is proud to take part in this celebration of dogs,” said Linda Rowell, Orlando Cluster Chair. “We’re excited to kick off the AKC/Eukanuba National Championship week and welcome many of the top dogs in the country to Orlando.”

The “Final Five” is comprised of:

Dec. 10-12, 2013: Space Coast Kennel Club of Palm Bay, Brevard Kennel Club, Central Florida Kennel Club and Orlando Dog Training Club shows, which include all-breed conformation, obedience and Junior Showmanship competitions.

Dec. 13, 2013: A full day of specialties and special attractions, including Eukanuba World Challenge pre-judging, the Eukanuba Breeder’s Stakes Finals and the AKC Owner-Handler Series end-of-year competition. Clubs interested in hosting specialties should contact Michael Canalizo at mlc@akc.org or 212-696-8213.

Dec. 14-15, 2013: The AKC/Eukanuba National Championship, joined by the AKC Agility Invitational and the AKC Obedience Classic (and their respective Juniors competitions). Other activities include Celebrate Dogs!, AKC Meet the Breeds® and My Dog Can Do That!, Best Bred-By-Exhibitor competition, and Eukanuba World Challenge Finals.

The AKC/Eukanuba National Championship will be held as the only event in one million square feet in the state-of-the-art North-South building of the Orange County Convention Center for the next three years. This new venue also gives attendees access to covered unloading areas, well-lit bathing facilities, closer/more abundant parking and expansive outdoor grass areas for exercise pens.

20 Basic Breeding Principles

By Raymond Oppenheimer; submitted by Jill Brennan

1. Don't make use of indiscriminate outcrosses. A judicious outcross can be of great value; an injudicious one can produce an aggregation of every imaginable fault of the breed.
2. Don't line breed just for the sake of line breeding. Line breeding with complimentary types can bring great rewards; with unsuitable one, it will lead to immediate disaster.
3. Don't take advice from people who have always been unsuccessful breeders. If their opinions were worth having, they would have proved it by their successes.
4. Don't believe the popular cliché about the brother or sister of the great champion being just as good to breed from. For every one that is, hundreds are not. It all depends on the animal concerned.
5. Don't credit your dogs with virtues they don't possess. Self-deceit is a stepping stone to failure.
6. Don't breed from mediocrities. The absence of a fault does not in any way signify the presence of its corresponding virtue.
7. Don't try to line breed to two dogs at the same time; you will end by line breeding to neither.
8. Don't assess the worth of a stud dog by his inferior progeny. All stud dogs sire rubbish at times. What matters is how good their best efforts are.
9. Don't allow personal feelings to influence your choice of a stud dog. The right dog for your bitch is the right dog, whoever owns it.
10. Don't allow admiration of a stud dog to blind you to his faults. If you do, you will soon be the victim of autointoxication.
11. Don't mate together animals which share the same fault. You are asking for trouble if you do.
12. Don't forget that it is the whole dog that counts. If you forget one virtue while searching for another, you will pay for it.
13. Don't search for the perfect dog as a mate for your bitch. The perfect dog for every bitch does not exist -- never has, never will.
14. Don't be frightened of breeding from animals that have obvious faults, so long as they have compensating virtues. A lack of virtues is by far the greatest fault of all.
15. Don't mate together non-complementary types. An ability to recognize type at a glance is a breeder's greatest gift. Ask the successful breeders to explain this subject --- there's no other way of learning. (I'd define non-complimentary types as ones which have the same faults and lack the same virtues).
16. Don't forget the necessity to preserve head quality. It will vanish like a dream if you do.
17. Don't forget that substance plus quality should be one of your aims. A fool can breed one without the other.
18. Don't forget that a great head plus soundness should be one of your aims. Some people can never breed either.
19. Don't ever try to decry a great terrier. A thing of beauty is not only a joy forever, but a great terrier should be a source of aesthetic pride and pleasure to all true lovers of the breed.
20. Don't be satisfied with anything but the best. The second best is never good enough.

Editor's Desk

Doing What We Love

It's no secret that I'm completely boat-obsessed. We have a motor boat, a sailboat, and live on what I loosely refer to as a house-barge. Getting out on the water is the number one activity that I look forward to in the summer. Zephyr's still searching for her sea legs, making great strides each year getting comfortable amidst the waves & sounds. Even if she never loves it quite like I do, having Zephyr and Eddie together with me on the boat is my greatest joy - the perfect trifecta.

This newsletter features an unleashed floodgate of exciting brags -our own hunt test, the National show and more. We've got the PSCV specialty to finish getting ready for, and are hosting a second show in November. Clearly the club is out there doing what we love!

Congrats to all who have taken home ribbons, earned titles, and had fun!
