President's Message

The Puget Sound Vizsla Club held its Summer Specialty on August 16, 2019 in connection with the Enumclaw show cluster. We enjoyed a wonderful entry that was up considerably from the previous year. Many thanks to Dani McCafferty for chairing another terrific show! Thanks also go to Sheila Wald, trophies, table decorations and flowers, Janine Marty, auction, Jill Brennan, advertising, Tom Shay, grounds, Dee Smiley, catalog sales and Paula Craig and Lisa Stewart, exhibitor bags. I hope I'm not overlooking anyone, but if I am, I apologize.

New at the Summer Specialty this year was the club's use of the Enumclaw Expo Center Field House for our potluck and auction. The Field House is a spacious indoor facility with running water and a kitchen. We certainly could have used that a few years ago when we held our potluck and auction in the rain, trying to stay dry! Thank you to Dani and the Show Committee for arranging for the PSVC to use the Field House. The Olympic Kennel Club made the Field House available to us without charge.

Our next event is the Fall Specialty at the Whidbey Island Kennel Club in Monroe on Saturday, November 16, 2019. Vizslas can enter two shows that day, the Vizsla class at the Whidbey Island Kennel Club show and the PSVC Fall Specialty. Please support our club by entering the Fall Specialty. The closing date is Wednesday, October 30, 2019. BaRay is the superintendent. Thanksgiving is on November 28 this year, so our Specialty won't interfere with the typical weekend before Thanksgiving preparations. We also plan to hold a meeting on Sunday, November 17 on the show grounds one half hour after Vizslas finish showing.

The PSVC made a $75 donation to Utah/Idaho Vizsla Rescue. We received grateful thanks from them.

I experienced one of those once in a life time experiences. I came to PSVC Summer Specialty with a 6 month old puppy - "Trek" Pursuit's Trek to the Triple Crown (Cruz x Rosie 2) which Gail Fleming and Amie Durbin bred. I never thought that a 6 month old puppy would be received so well over the 5 days of shows. Trek now has 12 points towards the required 15 points for his championship title at 6 months of age. He earned 1 point each day at the Hurricane Ridge Kennel Club and 2 major 5 point wins at Enumclaw.

Thank you to the judges at these shows who thought well of Trek: Steven Herman for Best of Winners @ PSVC; Jill Hoffbeck 2nd place in Sweeps; Barbara Pepper @ RSI for RW; Gene Liepmann @ OKC for RW; and Pamela Lambie @ OKC for Best of Winners.

earned her GCH title. At Enumclaw she retrieved a Select with Rainier Sporting Assoc., an Award of Merit at PSVC Specialty, and another Select with Olympic Kennel Club. Rosie2 is owned by Amie Durbin and Gail Fleming.

Eastwind News:

Tom and I discovered that we could juggle family obligations this year, and still attend a few dog shows, all with help from friends! First and foremost, would not have been possible without the help of Kristy Emery who graciously came to live a good portion of the summer being our dog and house sitter, while were away taking care of family members.

NEW Champion: "Baron", Ch Eastwind's Red Baron, owned and spoiled by Dr. Allen Knecht and Andrew Fletcher. Baron finished with limited showing and with all majors.

← Lani

No words can express the gratitude we feel! Also like to thank Theresa Bradley and Kryssi Torgeson for coming to our aid and showing our dogs since spring. It has taken a village!

← Leo ↑

In addition, his pack mate cousin, "Lani", also finished her Championship, and is now Ch Eastwind's Wild Card. Look for these two as specials in the new year.
